

MODERN LANGUAGES

The Modern Languages Department offers beginning, intermediate and advanced courses in Arabic, American Sign Language (ASL), Chinese (Mandarin), French and Spanish. Arabic, Chinese, French and Spanish are among the top ten most spoken languages in the U.S. and American Sign Language is the native language used by the Deaf community in the U.S. and parts of Canada. The primary objective of the Modern Languages Department is to teach language and culture at a level allowing one to communicate and interact with the community appropriately. Instruction emphasizes communication and cultural competency. The study of language may assist individuals seeking employment within, or in support of, various linguistic communities. Areas of employment benefitting from language and cultural competency may include Nursing, Human Services, Education, Business and Sales, and more. Students transferring for a Modern Language B.A. should consult a counselor regarding course requirements.

American Sign Language (ASL)

American Sign Language is the natural language of the Deaf community and is the foundation of Deaf Culture. American Sign Language is used by an estimated 2,500,000 members of the Deaf community in North America. American Sign Language is identified as a legitimate language with its own linguistic properties and grammar. American Sign Language courses are designed to help students develop level-appropriate linguistic, communicative, and cultural competence. Comprehension and expressive practice of American Sign Language occurs within culturally relevant contexts. San Bernardino Valley College offers first, second, third and fourth semester of American Sign Language courses, which are degree, CSU and UC applicable. For those seeking a career as an ASL interpreter, this coursework is the first step in transferring to an interpreter education program.

Spanish

Spanish is the language of 560 million people around the world. It is a culturally rich and historically significant language, the use of which spans no less than 3 continents and 20+ countries. Spanish is the second most spoken language in the United States, and it is the dominant language in many neighboring countries in the Western Hemisphere. The objectives of Spanish courses are level-appropriate linguistic competence and increased awareness of Hispanic culture. Classroom methods incorporate critical thinking and the direct oral approach. Assignments are based on lectures, reading, presentations and individual research. Activities may include homework, workbooks, journals, documentaries, movies, compositions, presentations, interviews, cultural discussions, etc.

The Spanish AA-T is a great first, or second major because fluency is a valuable skill in most professional fields. Advanced Spanish courses are divided into Spanish for Learners and Spanish for Heritage Speakers. Language courses are taken for personal or professional reasons, and/or to meet foreign language degree requirements including the SBVC AA-T degree for Spanish. All courses are transfer level and articulated with CSU/UC systems.
